4th March 2011

Dear Parent/Carer

You will be aware that the Government has announced that there will be an additional public holiday on Friday, 29th April 2011 to celebrate the Royal Wedding.

For some schools, however, this day falls within the school Easter holiday and the Governing Bodies of these schools have been asked to identify another date for this additional holiday so that all may benefit.

I would therefore like to inform you that Tytherington High School will be closed to students on Monday, 11th July 2011 which was deemed to be the least disruptive date to the school calendar.

Yours sincerely

R A ROBINSON
Acting Executive Headteacher

ADDENDUM

The Government took the decision to award the additional day, which has to be implemented this school year, as an entitlement for all teachers in state schools throughout England.

Monday, 11th July was selected by our Governing Body as the one which would cause the minimum disruption to the school calendar whilst also providing as much notice as possible to parents.
